

KY
KLÀ
DA

CALL FOR EDITORIAL INTERN

We are looking for an intern to support our current editorial and production process.

Task list: coordination of internal and external communication, coordinate content development, check additional sources, cross-check facts, conduct archival research, coordination of the social media, and errand running.

You are genuinely interested in the fields of content publishing, and bookmaking. You are eager to learn from these fields by joining the production process of a small scale publishing project based in Athens. You have excellent knowledge of English and Greek both in speaking and writing, and basic to advanced knowledge of Adobe Creative Suite Software. You are eager to learn new skills, work accurately and are able to communicate.

Workload is 2 days per week from May 15 - September 15 with a lower intensity throughout August. we foresee a modest stipend. express your interest in a motivated email to db@kyklada.press before May 8. www.kyklada.press

